Spring 2014

Issue No. 1

President's Perspective

by Michele Gill, President

The season is upon us and NWAGA golf kicks off at West Wind Golf Club in Ogallala with our Stroke Play tournament. After this winter season, we are all ready to begin swinging our clubs and renewing our friendships on the course. A late season storm blew through and creatively, through technology, we held a meeting with club reps informing them on the 2014 schedule, and a new mobile rules app, a free download from the USGA. Visit the NWAGA website at www.nwaga.org.

At 41 years old NWAGA is looking to continue to increase our membership. So ask your friends to join NWAGA, and sell them on the camaraderie of good friends, enjoyment of a great round of golf, and benefits of membership while supporting women's golf in Nebraska.

Maddy (Moser) Toepfer returns as our Executive Director and continues to help organize and direct our tournaments and manage the office in fine fashion. She is looking forward to visiting all the venues for our events this year at: West Winds GC, Norfolk CC, Hidden Valley GC, Oak Hills CC, Awarii Dunes GC, Quail Run GC, Kearney CC, York CC, and Ashland GC. We will be traveling the state and playing on some great courses so come out and say hello. If Maddy can help you or your club grow membership, call the office and utilize her talents. Additionally, our new Boatwright Intern is Cassie Trumbley who is poised to share her talents and ideas with our membership.

If you haven't played Match Play in a while, consider playing this year in the new format (page 5). A championship division and a non-championship division awaits players so there

Cassie Trumbley, 2014 NWAGA Boatwright Intern

Our 2014 NWAGA Boatwright Intern is Cassie Trumbley of Lincoln. Cassie is finishing up her freshman year at Midland University where she is pursuing a major in Human

Performance-Fitness and Sport Management and minoring in coaching, in addition to competing for their women's golf program. She plans to pursue a career in the golf industry when she is finished. Cassie has been golfing since she was fourteen years old and competed at Lincoln Lutheran High School where she qualified for the girl's state tournament twice. We are excited to have Cassie as an intern. Look out for her at this season's events. □

Nicolle Barmettler 2014 Scholarship Winner

NWAGA is pleased to honor Miss Nicolle Barmettler of Omaha as the 2014 NWAGA Founder's Scholarship Recipient. Nicolle is a senior at Elkhorn South High School and plans to attend Truman State University to major in Chemistry.

On the golf course, Barmettler was the Class B State runner-up in 2012 and 2013. In addition to golf she also plays soccer and basketball, is a member of SADD, National Honor Society, Olympus Club, World Language Club, Pep Club, and spends time tutoring in Spanish and AP Calculus. While participating in many activities, Nicolle has continued her success in the classroom and upheld an impressive GPA.

In her essay she wrote, "I eventually realized that the mistakes we make do not separate us from the crowd, but the way in which we handle failure does. I would much rather lose with my morals still intact and take responsibility for my mistakes than win dishonorably." Her essay provides a great insight to her character and leadership, both qualities that will carry her far in both life and golf.

On behalf of NWAGA and its members, we would like to congratulate Nicolle on her accomplishments during her high school career at Elkhorn South High School and wish her the best at Truman State University. □
