Issue No. 1

From the President...

A New Way to Honor NWAGA's Founding Members and Other Women Golfers

by Pam Gallagher, President

Normally when it's time to write this piece for the Spring Tee Off Time, we are just beginning to think about getting our clubs out and getting in shape for the upcoming season. This year it seems summer came in March. Many of us have been playing regular rounds of golf for more than a month, and our golf courses are already in prime condition, so we should all be ready to go when NWAGA's competitive season starts in early June.

Last year's PJ Boatwright intern, Maddy Moser, will return to work with us. She did an excellent job last summer, and so we are more than pleased to have her in the office and at our events this year.

At last fall's annual meeting, the club representatives were asked to help us find a way to assist in funding our Foundation Scholarship because we believed it was both unfair and difficult to again ask businesses who had contributed in the previous years. This year we have chosen to ask our members to assist by honoring NWAGA's founding members and other women golfers who have helped foster our golf skills and love and respect for the game.

Think of NWAGA's founders who led the way with this organization as well as the many other women golfers, the ones who may have introduced us to the game, taught us golf skills, etiquette, and rules, and whose own games inspired us to be better golfers, and consider making a donation in their honor. For a $25 donation, you can sponsor a hole on Fund Day and thus honor our founders and mentors.

See page 11 for donation details. □

2012 Tournament Changes

You will note that there are some changes to our summer play this year:

- The Four-Ball Tournament has been changed, on a trial basis, to a two-day event to see if a shorter event will allow for more working women to participate.
- State Stroke Play will combine the former Eastern and Western Stroke Play events into one event. It is our intention to rotate this tournament through our three regions.
- The Four Woman Scramble will be played as a Net event, also on a trial basis.
